In re Application of :
Steven M. Senn :
Application No. 09/888,554 : DECISION ON PETITION
Filed: June 26, 2001 :
Title: Retail Customer and :
Product Purchase Divider with :
Interactive Retail Transaction :
Functions :

This is a decision on the petition under the unintentional provisions of 37 CFR 1.137(b), filed June 18, 2008, to revive the above-identified application.

The petition is DISMISSED.

Any request for reconsideration of this decision must be submitted within TWO (2) MONTHS from the mail date of this decision. Extensions of time under 37 CFR 1.136(a) are permitted. The reconsideration request should include a cover letter entitled "Renewed Petition under 37 CFR 1.137(b)." This is not a final agency action within the meaning of 5 U.S.C. § 704.

This above-identified application became abandoned for failure to timely file a reply to a non-final Office Action mailed October 3, 2003. The non-final Office Action set a three (3) month shortened statutory period for reply. No extensions of time were obtained under the provisions of 37 CFR 1.136(a). Accordingly, this application became abandoned on January 4, 2004. A Notice of Abandonment was mailed on May 5, 2004.

Petitioner states that he did not receive the October 3, 2003 non-final Office action and the Notice of Abandonment because he no longer received mail at the correspondence address of record. Petitioner states he unintentionally failed to submit a change of address with the Office.

A grantable petition under 37 CFR 1.137(b) must be accompanied by: (1) the required reply, unless previously filed; (2) the petition fee as set forth in 37 CFR 1.17(m); (3) a statement that the entire delay in filing the required reply from the due date for the reply until the filing of a grantable petition pursuant to 37 CFR 1.137(b) was unintentional; and (4) any terminal disclaimer (and fee as set forth in 37 CFR 1.20(d)) required by 37 CFR 1.137(d). Where there is a question as to whether either the abandonment or the delay in filing a petition under 37 CFR 1.137 was unintentional, the Director may require additional information. See MPEP 711.03(c)(II)(C) and (D). The instant petition lacks item (1) and (3).

As to item (1) petitioner has failed to provide a reply to the non-final Office action. A courtesy copy of the October 3, 2003 Office action is being included for petitioner's convenience.

As to item (3), there are three periods to be considered during the evaluation of a petition under 37 CFR 1.137(b):

(1) the delay in reply that originally resulted in the abandonment;

(2) the delay in filing an initial petition pursuant to 37 CFR 1.137(b) to revive the application; and

(3) the delay in filing a grantable petition pursuant to 37 CFR 1.137(b) to revive the application.

Currently, the delay has not been shown to the satisfaction of the Director to be unintentional for period (2).

Where the applicant deliberately chooses not to seek or persist in seeking the revival of an abandoned application, or where the applicant deliberately chooses to delay seeking the revival of an abandoned application, the resulting delay in seeking revival of the abandoned application cannot be considered as "unintentional" within the meaning of 37 CFR 1.137(b). See MPEP 711.03(c).

The language of both 35 U.S.C. § 41(a)(7) and 37 CFR 1.137(b) are clear and unambiguous, and, furthermore, without qualification. That is, the delay in filing the reply during prosecution, as well as in filing the petition seeking revival, must have been, without qualification, "unintentional" for the reply to now be accepted on petition. The Office requires that the entire delay be at least unintentional as a prerequisite to revival of an abandoned application to prevent abuse and injury to the public. See H.R. Rep. No. 542, 97th Cong., 2d Sess. 7 (1982), reprinted in 1982 U.S.C.C.A.N. 771 ("[i]n order to prevent abuse and injury to the public the Commissioner . . . could require applicants to act promptly after becoming aware of the abandonment"). The December 1997 change to 37 CFR 1.137 did not create any new right to overcome an intentional delay in seeking revival, or in renewing an attempt at seeking revival, of an abandoned application. See Changes to Patent Practice and Procedure; Final Rule Notice, 62 Fed. Reg. 53131, 53160 (October 10, 1997), 1203 Off. Gaz. Pat. Office 63, 87 (October 21, 1997), which clearly stated that any protracted delay (here, over four years) could trigger, as here, a request for additional information. As the courts have since made clear, a protracted delay in seeking revival, as here, requires a petitioner's detailed explanation seeking to excuse the delay as opposed to USPTO acceptance of a general allegation of unintentional delay. See Lawman Armor v. Simon, 2005 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 10843, 74 USPQ2d 1633, at 1637-8 (DC EMich 2005); Field Hybrids, LLC v. Toyota Motor Corp., 2005 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 1159 (D. Minn Jan. 27, 2005) at *21-*23. Statements are required from any and all persons having firsthand knowledge of the circumstances surrounding the protracted delay, after the abandonment date, in seeking revival.

Letter concerning provisional application

Applicant submitted a letter, filed 1/22/03, which stated that a provisional application has been filed for this application. Applicant must submit a supplemental declaration/oath, which claims the continuation. The domestic priority date, when properly claimed will change the 102(b) rejection into a 102(e) rejection.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

1. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

Claims 1-3 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Tracy et al.

Tracy et al. shows, figures 4 and 5, a method and system for presenting item information using a portable terminal 100 (an exterior housing). The terminal 100 has a barcode reader 120 (electronic data input component) and a display 110. Figure 4 shows communications, including price data, through an RF 130 connection (wireless method) between the portable terminal and a POS terminal. Column 7, lines 37-41, shows an electronic marking (attached device identification), which is provided as a means for identifying the location of the bar code by the central processor.

ORDER OF ADMINISTRATIVE LAW JUDGE

(Wage Earner)

(Social Security Number)

APR - 7, 2008

10. Considering the claimant's age, education, work experience, and residual functional capacity, there are no jobs that exist in significant numbers in the national economy that he can perform (20 CFR 404.1560(c), 404.1566, 416.960(c), and 416.966).

In determining whether a successful adjustment to other work can be made, the undersigned must consider the claimant's residual functional capacity, age, education, and work experience in conjunction with the Medical-Vocational Guidelines, 20 CFR Part 404, Subpart P, Appendix 2. If the claimant can perform all or substantially all of the exertional demands at a given level of exertion, the medical-vocational rules direct a conclusion of either "disabled" or "not disabled" depending upon the claimant's specific vocational profile (SSR 83-11). When the claimant cannot perform substantially all of the exertional demands of work at a given level of exertion and/or has nonexertional limitations, the medical-vocational rules are used as a framework for decisionmaking unless there is a rule that directs a conclusion of "disabled" without considering the additional exertional and/or nonexertional limitations (SSRs 83-12 and 83-14). If the claimant has solely nonexertional limitations, section 204.00 in the Medical-Vocational Guidelines provides a framework for decisionmaking (SSR 85-15).

Even if the claimant had the residual functional capacity for the full range of sedentary work, considering the claimant's age, education, and work experience, a finding of "disabled" would be 201.14.

The vocational expert testified that the claimant's limitations in sitting, standing, and walking erode his occupational base. Additionally, his need for close access to bathroom facilities and unpredictable breaks would exceed customary work tolerances. The vocational expert's opinion is consistent with the record as a whole and is persuasive.

11. The claimant has been under a disability, as defined in the Social Security Act, from August 23, 2003, through the date of this decision (20 CFR 404.1520(g) and 416.920(g)).

DECISION

Based on the application for a period of disability and disability insurance benefits protectively filed on January 10, 2005, the claimant has been disabled under sections 216(i) and 223(d) of the Social Security Act beginning on August 23, 2003.

Based on the application for supplemental security income protectively filed on January 10, 2005, the claimant has been disabled under section 1614(a)(3)(A) of the Social Security Act beginning on August 23, 2003.

The component of the Social Security Administration responsible for authorizing supplemental security income will advise the claimant regarding the nondisability requirements for these payments, and if eligible, the amount and the months for which payment will be made.

Dear Mr. Senn,

Your application came in from our file repository. I reviewed the case and your petition to revive is in the file. I forwarded the case to the Office of Petitions and they will act upon the petition and have the problem of the case being a hybrid file (1/2 paper and 1/2 electronic) corrected. I would give them some time to get the case docketed before calling. I'd say you should follow up in a few weeks by calling their help desk at 571-272-3282. Good luck.
